IN SIX ROUNDS

CAN CONSUMPTION BE CURED

By The New Treatment?

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Oscar Gardner, of Wheeling, defeated Solly Smith, of Los Angeles, Cal., very easily, in six rounds, at the Lenox Athletic Club, to-night. Smith was unsteady on his feet from the opening, and was unusually wild. Some persons thought that he was under the influence of some drug, but those close to his corner were unable to say whether this was so or not. Gardner was not in the best of condition, either, but fought bravely, and outclassed his opponent from the first tap of the bell.

In the sixth round Smith went down four times, and as he was going down the last time, Oscar sent a right smash to the jaw which did not land until Smith was on his knees. Smith rolled over on his back, and was counted out, while his seconds yelled "foul," and many of the spectators took up the cry. The blow was on the jaw, and Smith was going, and could not be held back by Gardner, who had no intention of fouling. Referee White ruled that no foul had occurred, and decided in Gardner's favor. They were very little kicking over the verdict.

Round 1. Gardner was first to lead, landing a right slap on Smith's back. Oscar stepped in with a right straight to the face and a left hook on the body. Solly sent in a left hook on the top of the head. Oscar rushed Solly into the latter's corner, where Solly slipped to the floor. Solly felted, and Solly fell into right-of-the-face, which sent him to the floor, where Smith stayed four seconds.

Round 2. Solly led for the body with a left hand hook, which landed on Oscar's head. They mixed it up rapidly right into Solly's corner, where the latter caught his man with a right hook on the ribs, and they were ordered to break. Solly stepped in with a right on the body, Gardner chopping his left on the face. After a little fiddling, Gardner sent his left twice to the body, and swung it to the head, without getting anything back. The bell found them sparring.

Round 3. Solly led his left for the head, but Oscar ducked safely. Gardner chopped his left to the face, and in the clinch which followed Smith went to the floor. Both fought a great deal, and in a mix-up Gardner sent right and left to the body, and blocked Smith's attempt to counter. Oscar slipped to the floor, and Solly caught him on the head with a right. At the close of the round Gardner hooked a hard right to the ribs in a clinch.

Round 4. Smith led, and got his right to the body. Oscar countered on the neck. They dove around for half a minute, and then Gardner cut loose with rights and lefts. Solly, who seemed to slip frequently, Oscar caught Smith on the head, turning him around. Solly clinched. In breaking from a clinch Solly struck Gardner on the head, and was cautioned. At the closing of the round Gardner sent Smith to the floor with a right smash to the head, just as the gong ordered them back.

Round 5. Gardner led with left to face and right to the body. Smith going to his knees. Oscar landed an awful left swing on the head, which sent Smith staggering to the ropes. Coming together again, Smith sent his left to the body, and Gardner countered with the right. A left hand hook on the jaw sent Smith reeling to the ropes. Several clinches followed, with Gardner trying for the body until the round ended.

Round 6. Solly opened with two right fists to the face. Gardner rushed, sending his left hard on the body. Then he sent Solly to the floor with a straight left on the face. Smith came up and went down again from a right smash on the body. Smith got up in five seconds very groggy. He rushed, as if strong, and swung wildly with right and left. Gardner broke away from him, and rushed back quickly. They were then near the ropes, on the north side of the ring, and in a mix-up Smith was dropping to avoid punishment. After getting a left on the head, Oscar sent a right smash which landed on the jaw as Smith was on his way, and could not be held back. Smith rolled over on his back, and the referee counted him out, while several persons yelled "foul." Referee White said there was no foul, and declared Gardner the winner. Time of last round, 1:25.

Another Draw.
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 7.—Fully 1,200 sports went from this city late last night to Rockport, a suburban town, to witness the initial boxing carnival under the auspices of the Rockport Athletic Club. The first "go" was between Jeff Powers, of Cleveland, and Curley Supplies, of Buffalo, which lasted for twenty rounds. Powers forced the fighting from the start and in the seventh round drew first blood by a hard jab on the nose. After the bout had some eleven rounds Supplies shifted his tactics and repeatedly sent Powers to the floor. As both men were on their feet at the end of the round, the referee called it a draw. DANGERS REAL AND FANCIED.
The average woman will scream with terror at the sight of an innocent little mouse, and then complacently sit down and suffer in silence with diseases that are destroying her youth, her beauty, her very life. She will unconsciously resign herself to the woes and miseries of female troubles, which are to be dreaded a thousand times more than a tiny mouse. It is gratifying to know that untold numbers of women are being restored to perfect vigor and strength by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures all uterine disorders. The exact name of the disease doesn't amount to a row of pins. If it is the womanly organs, "Favorite Prescription" will hunt it out and cure it. It can be taken in any form, and it is a medicine for women only, and is the prescription of Dr. R. W. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., a world-famed specialist in the treatment of diseases of women. Any reader of this paper may consult Dr. Pierce free by mail. Write him if you feel that you need a healthy baby.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

Dr. R. W. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "During the past year I found myself afflicted with a peculiar form of biliousness, arising from indigestion and urinary difficulty. I was growing perceptibly weaker each day and suffered from sharp pains at times. I felt that something must be done. I consulted a physician and received a prompt reply. I followed your directions and took twelve bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and also followed your instructions. My health became excellent, and I could do all my usual work (two live on a good farm). I walked and rode and enjoyed myself. I had a short, easy confinement and had a healthy baby."

BELLAIKE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County.

Fire was discovered in an old straw shed near the Aetna glass plant early yesterday morning, and the alarm was given, but the fire was controlled before the department responded. It was fortunate that the discovery was made early, as the shed was full of straw, and perhaps started it accidentally.

There is every indication at this time that there will be material improvements and extensions in some of the industries of this city in the spring, as well as a prospect for additional ones. If present prospects hold out there will be plenty of money for legitimate enterprises.

A young girl who recently caused some commotion here by threatening to commit suicide and making a feat in that direction, started west yesterday, but just as the train was pulling into the station the mother of the girl spoiled her future calculations.

The high school boys and girls have adopted a new college yell: "Large and elegant, splendid! Bellair high school, ninety-nine!" They made the night air ring as the class glided over the crisp snow in a big sled fastened to a spanking team of horses.

The Times-Herald, of Chicago, notes the marriage of Miss Nanette Kurtz, daughter of Dr. C. E. Kurtz, formerly of this city, to Claud C. Bell, of Juncie, Ind., at length. The wedding was an elaborate and fashionable affair.

There will be an entertainment at St. Paul's A. M. E. church Friday evening, at which good music by home talent will be rendered. There are a number of good singers on the programme, all home people.

Joseph Glass and A. J. Eddy, who have been in camp with the First West Virginia soldiers' boys for about seven months, got home yesterday, heartier for the experience they have had.

Jones & McGraw have the contract to construct the new Leach property in the Fifth ward.

Mr. A. T. Heath will leave this week on his initial trip for the Bellair Bottle Company.

MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS.

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

The answer to the garnishes in the attachment cases of McHenry, Yaho and Gehring against Contractors W. W. McCoy & Son, of the Presbyterian church, was taken before Squire Keller yesterday, but owing to there having been no service of summons made upon the defendants the cases were continued to permit constructive service to be made by publication. The hearing took up nearly the entire day and a great deal of wrangling between the attorneys made it interesting for listeners who were present.

Daniel Gilmore, colored, whose dangerous condition from illness was mentioned some time ago, died at the home of Frank Walker, on Concord street, yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, aged 70 years. He was well and favorably known by all of our people and was a local minister of the gospel. The funeral will occur to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the A. M. E. church, on Sixth street. Interment at Riverview.

The Knights of Pythias held a special meeting last night. Despite the inclement weather a number of representatives from nearby towns were present. After the initiation of several applicants into the third degree a banquet was held and a general good time ensued.

The festival which was to have been given in Scheeche's hall Friday and Saturday evenings by the ladies of the German Lutheran church has been postponed and will not be given until after Lent.

CATARRH OF STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; headaches, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a shiny, inflamed condition.

The cure of this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will disappear.

According to Dr. Harlanston the safest and best treatment is to take each meal a tablet, composed of Dittase, Aescetic Pepsin, a little Nux-Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after a time.

Mr. N. J. Boehr, of 2710 Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years a course of treatment without cure, but to-day I am the happier of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found fresh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

BENWOOD NEWS.

Local Happenings of Importance in a Busy Town.

Although the election will not occur until a year from the coming fall, names are being considered as a successor to Sheriff James Doyle, for politics is an inviting topic in Marshall county every day in the year. No candidate has yet declared himself, and it is not even known that the men suggested would run, nevertheless the Register has a list of names of such old warriors as James D. Bailey, ex-clerk of Mountville; Assessor S. K. Chase, of Cameron; ex-Deputy Sheriff Joseph McCombs, of Mountville, and Charles H. Seabright, of North Benwood. The Democrats are not interesting themselves, their case being hopeless, but there was talk of running J. S. Dunlevy, of Cameron, had he not been defeated for county commissioner. However, when the proper time comes more of the gentlemen cherishing sheltered aspirations will advance to the front of the stage.

Mayor Shepard yesterday explained the license to Oppenheimer & Klein, for the Hotel Windsor, over which Councilman Barrett grew hot under the collar. The custom has prevailed in years for the mayor to grant a license at pro rata terms until the succeeding meeting of council when that body may confirm or reject the application as it sees fit. In this case it was merely a transfer, and as the present council adopted a resolution calling for council's sanction, the application was sent to each member for his signature, so as to enable the firm to do business until council met. Mr. Barrett was the sole member refusing, and the storm he raised soon subsided. There was little ground for it.

There ought to be a large audience at the city hall this evening to hear the humorous lecture, "Love, Courtship and Marriage," delivered by J. G. Bailey, of Kentucky. Part of the proceeds go to the higher grades of the public schools, to be used for worthy purposes.

The Benwood boys with the First Regiment have returned are John Slipper, Will Powell, Harry McCabe, William Schrupp, George Morris and Ed. Harvey. Every one of them is looking well and report an enjoyable experience with army life.

Squire Henry Riddle is indisposed. He had just recovered from an attack of grip, and has been quite unwell in this respect lately.

The school children are practicing diligence on the programme they will render on Washington's birthday.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recover by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Cox." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Logan Drug Co., Every drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY, WASHINGTON, Dec. 29, 1898.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The National Exchange Bank of Wheeling," in the city of Wheeling, in the county of Ohio, and state of West Virginia, has complied with all the provisions of the Statutes of the United States required to be complied with before an association shall be authorized to commence business of banking.

Now, therefore, I, Lawrence O. Murray, Deputy and Acting Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that
